Roundtable Discussion: Evolving the Payer-Provider Relationship Through Innovative Disruption

Can the old traditional, us-versus-them thinking be overcome to drive better healthcare? It has to. That dichotomy is no longer sustainable. Disruptive innovation is driving commercial health payers and provider together as business partners and providers of quality care, unifying their goals to ensure success. This roundtable explores the disruptions you need to know about now and in the near future.

Speaker:

Phil Brown, Sr. Vice President Human Resources, Mohawk Industries

Roundtable Discussion: Safeguarding Health Data in the Post-Facebook World

According to Health Data Management, healthcare is one of four industries hit by 77 percent of all ransom ware attacks. Why are hackers taking aim at our industry? Why is healthcare so vulnerable to data breaches and theft? This roundtable will paint a full picture of why you think your organization is protected but is likely not, and what can be done about it through the latest software, technology and common-sense security strategies.

Speakers:

Chris Jann, Founder and CEO of Medicus IT
Steve Marco, President, HIPAA One
